The Admissions Office serves as the focal point of contact between the University and the non-campus community in providing speedy, direct, and personal service to potential students and their families regarding the academic and the extra-curricular environments of the University. This unit provides educational opportunity information by identifying, recruiting, counseling, and encouraging a diverse population of prospective students to seek admissions to and enroll at the University. Thus, the Admissions Office is committed to the principle that access to education is afforded on the basis of individual merit.
