Lady Aggies' Historic National Postseason Wins!
The Lady Aggies basketball team is the first NCAA Division I historically black college or university to win two postseason games. The Aggies will play Miami Thursday, March 25th at 7 p.m. in Coral Gables, Fla.

Got QEP?
The purpose of the Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) is to improve student achievement of learning outcomes related to critical thinking. Teaching critical thinking skills from the freshman through the senior year will better prepare the students to compete with... those from other institutions and force them not to take information at just face value.

QEP

SACS Reaffirmation 2010
SACS reaffirmation is a university-wide effort requiring the active participation of a broad swath of university stakeholders, including an interdisciplinary team of administrators, faculty, staff, and students.

Hear Dr. Patricia Russell-McCloud
The Office of Greek Life at A&T will host motivational speaker Patricia Russell-McCloud JD, Friday, March 26, 6-8 p.m. in Harrison Auditorium. The event is free and open to the public.

Child Development Lab Ribbon Cutting & Open House
A&T's Child Development Center (CDL) will be holding an open house and ribbon-cutting ceremony on Wednesday, March 31, from 3 p.m. - 6 p.m. at its new facility located at 114 Luther St. (off Benbow Rd. and Bluford St.), near the A&T tennis courts and University Alumni-Foundation Event Center parking lot.

A&T Active Shooter Exercise March 26
A&T will conduct an all-day emergency active shooter drill. The purpose of this drill is to provide an opportunity for participants to evaluate current response concepts for responding to an active shooter event on the campus.

You will find important information for N.C. A&T students, faculty and staff: http://www.ncat.edu
Register Now for Chancellor Martin's April 23rd Installation Ceremony
The five-day celebration will be held April 19-23, and will feature a variety of events designed to engage the community in academia, social and civic issues and the arts. RSVP NOW!

Aggie Alums Joe Williams and Sandra Hughes
Greensboro attorney and former judge Joe Williams was influenced by black leaders in southeast Greensboro in the 1960s. Sandra Hughes reflects on her 38 years of experience as a television journalist.

Donald Lindsay and Buffalo Soldiers
Buffalo Soldiers unveil and rededicate the historic marker on East Market Street.

A&T's Alzheimer's Research
A&T professor Goldie Byrd is leading a study on the genetic and environmental factors that cause blacks to suffer from Alzheimer's disease at disproportionate rates.

Senior Swimmers Honored
The Aggies' swimming team celebrated senior night honoring seniors Vinetae Wynn, Cramille Wrights, and Signe Waldbauer.